

JOHN BAILEY

John Bailey is highly qualified and has extensive experience as an educator (teacher, administrator & special education consultant). He has worked in the field of special needs education for 30 years in many schools and in a range of different contexts - in Australia, the UK, Canada and China. John's qualifications (from UWA) include an M.Ed, B.Ed and B.A. and he spent 12 months as a visiting scholar at Cambridge University in the UK. John provides professional development to schools and he has worked with over 1,000 families in WA. He presents widely at workshops and conferences at local, state, national and international level. John has the practical experience, the resources and the knowledge to make a difference to you and to your children.

"Every child has the right to the education (at home, at day-care and at school) which offers them the greatest chance of achieving to their full potential - socially, emotionally and intellectually."
